Submission requirements

Authors should confirm that their article is original work and not under consideration for publication elsewhere. Submissions should be made via the journal's ScholarOne site. The website is located at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/rcrc>. Guidelines for authors are available on the website. Once a user is logged onto the site, submissions should be made via the Author Centre.

For the purpose of blind peer review, authors should upload an anonymous version of their manuscript, from which all information identifying the author should be deleted.

An abstract of not more than 200 words should be uploaded during the submission process. In addition, a minimum of 5 and a maximum of 10 key words should be added.

The full title of the article should be supplied on the title page. Articles should be typed in double-spacing (including all notes and references), and between roughly 7000 words in length. Research notes are limited to 2 000 words in length and book reviews to 500 words. Please do not attempt a layout. All notes should be kept to a minimum and appear as footnotes.

Please supply full contact details of each corresponding author: name, mailing address, telephone and facsimile numbers, e-mail address, and affiliation and country of each corresponding author at the time of the work.

Correspondence

All correspondence concerning articles should be directed to:
